THIS WEEK'S SERVICE

This Sunday we continue the I AM sermon series during Lent. Each of the statements Jesus makes about himself in the Gospel of John invites us to follow Christ more fully because of who he is and not what we would prefer him to be. Next, we look at Jesus' promise that he is the "The Way, the Truth, and the Life." Jesus reminds his disciples that if they trust in him, they do not need to fear. He then explains how knowing who Jesus is leads them to know and understand who the Father is. We will explore what Jesus means as he calls himself the WAY.

The message this Sunday will focus on from John 14:5-14, "I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Every week, we have the privilege of welcoming the children of God into a time of exploration of God's Great Big Story, the Bible. Through stories, games, crafts, activities, and lots of fun, we invite children to interact with God's story, experience God's love, wonder at His greatness, and find their place in His family. That only happens through a great team of caring adults, pouring into the lives of children, and sharing God's Word and God's love with them, and we would love to grow our team. If you are curious about what goes on in the lower level and are looking for a way to get involved and serve at Bethel, come join us on a Sunday and check it out.
